Tiger Driver from the missing China video by cat-cat.info Description: This video features a male tiger named Tiger being introduced to the camera. He is not under any kind of constraint and appears to be in good spirits. After getting used to the camera, he goes into some other room where he finds a piece of meat. He seems to be interested in the meat and starts to chew on it. We do not know if he is acting out of hunger or something else. Nevertheless, he takes his time to eat the meat as he looks at the camera. This video would be worth watching because it shows you the natural behaviour of a tiger and its antics. Heads 82157476af
